

Tucson Osteopathic Medical Foundation

27th Annual Southwestern Conference on Medicine

TOPICS DRAFT

- Targeting Obesity in Primary Care Patients Panel Discussion (4 hours)
- Addressing the Opioid Epidemic in Primary Care Panel Discussion (3 hours)
- Social Media, Technology and the E-Patient (1 hour)
- Primary Care Endocrinology Review “Ask the Expert” (2 hours)
- The Future of Precision Medicine (1 hour)
- Cervical and Breast Cancer Panel Discussion (2 hours)
- Best Practices for Treating Anxiety and Depression in Primary Care (1 hour)
- Alzheimer’s Disease and Dementia (1 hour)
- CV Mechanism: Reducing CV Death with SGLT2 Inhibitors (1 hour)
- Desert Wilderness Medicine (1 hour)
- Emergency Medicine “Dirty Dozen” for Primary Care – Including recommendations from experts in Cardiology, Dermatology, Gastroenterology, Neurology, Rheumatology, Otolaryngology, OBGYN, and Infectious Disease on topics including Chest Pain and Shortness of Breath; Skin Infections, Rashes, and Wound Care; Abdominal Pain, Vomiting, and Diarrhea; Headaches and Stroke Syndromes; Infections and Antibiotics Prescribing Guidelines; Syncope; Dizziness, Vertigo, and Sinusitis; Acute Arthropathies, Gout, and Tendonitis; and Pelvic Pain (9 hours)
- End-Of-Life Panel Discussion and Workshop Concurrent Session (4 hours)
- Hot Topics in Pediatrics Concurrent Session (4 hours)
- Osteopathic Manipulative Medicine Workshop Concurrent Session (4 hours)

The Conference begins at 7:30 am on Thursday, April 26. Thursday and Friday have a maximum of 8 credits available each day. Saturday and Sunday morning sessions have a maximum of 5 credits each, while the Saturday afternoon concurrent sessions offer a maximum of 4 credits. TOMF anticipates a maximum of 30 credit hours for the Conference.

This is a DRAFT listing of the topics to be presented during the Conference. The list is presented in no particular order and topics are subject to change.