

Tucson Osteopathic Medical Foundation

28th Annual Southwestern Conference on Medicine

TOPICS DRAFT

- Understanding and Preparing for Emerging Diseases (1.5 hours)
- Inflammatory Bowel Diseases (1 hour)
- Vasculitis and Lupus (1 hour)
- Obesity - Navigating Popular Diet Trends, Pharmacological and Surgical Options (2 hours)
- Diabetes Medication Management (2 hours)
- Chronic Kidney Disease Management (1 hour)
- Vascular Surgery and Wound Care in Primary Care Panel (1.5 hours)
- Team-Based Healthcare Delivery Systems - Understanding and Utilizing Various Providers for Increased Outcomes (1 hour)
- Health in Moderation – Creating Clear Boundaries and a Healthy Life Balance (1 hour)
- Improving Communication with Patients (1 hour)
- LGBTQ Patient Care and Communication (1 hour)
- Myths and Facts about Low Libido in Women (1 hour)
- Echocardiography Advances for Use in Primary Care (1 hour)
- Structural Heart Disease (1 hour)
- Cancer and Heart Disease (1 hour)
- Concussion and Pre-Participation Physical Examinations (2 hours)
- The Roles of Imaging, Orthopaedic Surgery and OMM in Sports Related Injuries (2 hours)
- Suicide: Risk detection and prevention in primary care (1 hour)
- PTSD (1 hour)
- Migraines (1 hour)
- The Pain of Trauma, The Trauma of Pain - Changing Your Approach to Chronic Pain in the Opioid Crisis (1 hour)
- Pediatric Safety, Development, Toxicology, and Adolescent Depression
Concurrent Session (4 hours)
- Osteopathic Manipulative Medicine Workshop
Concurrent Session (4 hours)

The Conference begins at 7:30 am on Thursday, May 2. Thursday and Friday have a maximum of 8 credits available each day. Saturday and Sunday morning sessions have a maximum of 5 credits each, while the Saturday afternoon concurrent sessions offer a maximum of 4 credits. TOMF anticipates a maximum of 30 credit hours for the Conference.

This is a DRAFT listing of the topics to be presented during the Conference. The list is presented in no particular order and topics are subject to change.